MANI RATNA RESORT

Mani Ratna Resort is nestled in the tranquil village of Hongtsho, just 5 kilometers from the iconic Dochula Pass. Surrounded by pine forests and fresh mountain air, Hongtsho offers a serene escape that beautifully balances seclusion and accessibility. The village embodies the essence of Bhutanese simplicity and spirituality, peaceful, pure, and deeply connected to nature, making it the perfect setting for mindful retreats and rejuvenation.

A short drive away, Dochula Pass (3,100 meters) stands as one of Bhutan's most revered landmarks, offering sweeping views of the snow-capped Eastern Himalayas. Home to the Druk Wangyal Chortens, a cluster of 108 stupas built to honor Bhutan's peace and prosperity, Dochula is not just a scenic viewpoint but a soulful destination that captures the spiritual and natural majesty of the Kingdom.

SUSTAINABILITY & RESPONSIBILITY

Sustainability

Rooted in Hongtsho village, our commitment to sustainability begins with direct local economic support, primarily through procuring fresh, seasonal farm products from local farmers to minimize food mileage. Operationally, we minimize our ecological footprint by eliminating single-use plastics and implementing rigorous waste management and energy efficiency programs, ensuring a long-term, beneficial partnership with the land and community.

Responsibility (CSR)

Our CSR commitment actively contributes to the region's spiritual and ecological health. We fulfill our responsibility by adopting a nearby monastery, providing essential support to preserve its cultural heritage. Concurrently, we have adopted a nearby stream, investing in conservation efforts and routine clean-up drives to protect this vital natural resource and promote local water security, embodying our Heartfelt Hospitality to all.

Mani Ratna Resort caters to a highly discerning global clientele, individuals who seek not only luxury but also genuine immersion and profound personal space. Recognizing the value of our guests, we uphold a stringent commitment to absolute privacy and confidentiality across all facets of the resort experience, from arrival to departure. Our bespoke butler service is trained to anticipate needs without intrusion, and our exclusive, stand-alone setting ensures that every guest enjoys their spiritual and restorative journey with unparalleled seclusion and peace. For those seeking a sanctuary away from public scrutiny, the resort guarantees an environment of discreet luxury and total confidentiality.
